Mission: To provide a recreational basketball and cheerleading program for Gwinnett youth with an emphasis on fun and enjoyment, fair play, sportsmanship, and game fundamentals. Winning is fun, but not the main goal.

Code of Conduct

Coach initial's _____

Our goal is to promote the development of strong character, great attitude, and a sense of responsibility and citizenship in our youth. To achieve this goal, our volunteer coaches and parents must set a positive example of fair play and sportsmanship. It is against conduct guidelines for any participant, coach, or spectator to argue, use abusive language, harass, or make threatening gestures toward anyone. Failure to abide by these guidelines will result in removal from the gym and from the season as a coach or parent and spectator. Staff will determine whether the coach will be allowed to coach during the next season. The sole purpose of this league is for teaching, participation, and enjoyment of the game.

Coach Responsibilities

- Understand game rules of basketball/cheerleading, as well as league play rules
- Participate in mandatory Coaches Clinic
- Participate in required number of regular season games, practices, picture day, and end of season tournament. Any games/tournaments other than Mustang Athletics may be scheduled only after league commitments are satisfied.
- Stay updated on events and meetings, and cooperate with the administrative requirements of managing or coaching a team
- Communicate with your team. Your job as coach is to keep every parent/player on your roster informed throughout the season regarding practices times, game schedules, etc. Staff ensures the website (MustangYouthAthletics.com) is current with schedules, standings, and other needed information.

Standards of Behavior

- Be a positive role model to players and parents with a great attitude, good sportsmanship, and even temperament. Professionally and constructively discuss any disputed rule violation with umpires; judgment calls are not debatable.
- Physical contact in a confrontational/disciplinary situation is unacceptable
- Unsportsmanlike conduct, obscene language, or unruly behavior is unacceptable
- Alcoholic beverages are not allowed at games or tournaments
- Tobacco products are not allowed on Gwinnett County property
- If the conduct of team parents/fans warrants, take the necessary actions to intervene and counsel them on the repercussions of unsportsmanlike behavior, including ejection from the park and season

By signing below, I agree to abide by the mission statement, code of conduct, responsibilities, and standards of behavior of Mustang Youth Athletics, as well as the rules established by Gwinnett Parks and Recreation.
